

INTAPT Teaching Log

Session #: ① Date of Session: 18/12/2024 # of hours: 1

Type of education activity (1:1 ambulatory, program meeting, etc.) / Name of education program: _____

1:1 ambulatory clinical teaching - medication reconciliation

Location / hospital*: community FM clinic

Student's Initials / # of participants*: 1 student. (AS)

Education level of student / participants (UG, PG, etc.):* PGY-1 (FM)

Positive aspects of session: - student demonstrated strong functional

Knowledge of med. reconciliation principles.

- engaged in active problem-solving when reviewing complex medication lists

Difficulties of session: - initial difficulty in prioritizing which medications required immediate fix.

- hesitation in pt. communication regarding potential medication

As.

Reflection and interpretation of session (analysis): - the student benefitted from a structured approach to medication review, reinforcing the importance of systematic thinking.

Consideration of future strategies for managing similar sessions: ① Provide a decision-making framework to aid in medication prioritization

② Consider role-playing pt. discussions to build confidence.

in communication.

* Do not post any details online or electronically which may represent a breach of privacy guidelines

Also available online: <http://www.dfcm.utoronto.ca/grad-forms>