

INTAPT Teaching Log

Session #: ④ Date of Session: 09/01/2025 # of hours: 1

Type of education activity (1:1 ambulatory, program meeting, etc.) / Name of education program: _____

1:1 ambulatory teaching — preventative care

Location / hospital*: community FMC clinic

Student's Initials / # of participants*: 1 student K.R.

Education level of student / participants (UG, PG, etc.):* PGY-1

Positive aspects of session: — student demonstrated awareness of age-appropriate screening guidelines.

Difficulties of session: — uncertainty in addressing pt. resistance to screening recommendations

Reflection and interpretation of session (analysis): — student recognized the importance of pt. autonomy + trust in preventative care.

Consideration of future strategies for managing similar sessions: — discuss strategies for addressing pt. resistance empathetically.
— use case-based scenarios to reinforce shared decision making.

* Do not post any details online or electronically which may represent a breach of privacy guidelines

Also available online: <http://www.dfcu.utoronto.ca/grad-forms>