

INTAPT Teaching Log

Session #: ② Date of Session: 19/12/2024 # of hours: 1

Type of education activity (1:1 ambulatory, program meeting, etc.) / Name of education program: _____

1:1 ambulatory teaching - chronic disease management.

Location / hospital*: community FM clinic

Student's Initials / # of participants*: 1 student. AS (A.S.)

Education level of student / participants (UG, PG, etc.):* PGY-1 (FM)

Positive aspects of session: - student reviewed pt. history efficiently

+ formulated a management plan.

- demonstrated good grasp of DM guidelines

Difficulties of session: - limited experience in shared decision-making w/ patients.

Reflection and interpretation of session (analysis): - student recognized the importance of balancing guideline-based care w/ pt. preferences.

Consideration of future strategies for managing similar sessions: - encourage reflective discussion on pt.-centered care strategies

- introduce motivational interviewing techniques to enhance pt. engagement.

* Do not post any details online or electronically which may represent a breach of privacy guidelines

Also available online: <http://www.dfcu.utoronto.ca/grad-forms>